So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hoblitzell moved that this Section be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Berkemeier moved to amend, "and for Boys' Home Society, of Baltimore, $500."

The question recurring upon the amendment,
It was rejected.

The question then recurring upon Mr. Hoblitzell's motion,
It was adopted,

And the Section ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Snowden moved to insert the following amendment to be Section 3:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

"SECTION 3. Be it enacted, That to the Maryland Agricultural College there be appropriated the sum of five hundred dollars; provided, that no part of this money shall be paid, except upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon by the stockholders of the College, on the one part, and the Trustees, who are the representatives of the State's interest, on the other part, to wit: the Governor of the State, the Principal of the State Normal School, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates—to the end that the College may be re-organized, so as to fulfill the purposes for which it was originally established, and better conduce to the advancement of agriculture in the State."

The question recurring upon the adoption of the amendment,

Mr. Given demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows:
